

AAA Staff Bios

Sridevi

Sridevi Mohan joined the AAA as the Manager in March 2022. She has a Master's in Public Health and in Biological Sciences from Wayne State University, MI. Prior to joining the AAA, she worked as an Epidemiologist/Aging lead at PHMDC. Her 15+ year career can be split between academia and public health and has a broad background in research, evaluation, aging, community engagement and health & racial equity. She is an ardent advocate for older adults and has served on Dane County AAA Board and several committees at the Local, State and National level to advance healthy aging policies. She lives in Middleton with her husband and son.

Cindy

Cindy Matulle has worked in Dane County for 18 years. Before coming to AAA as the Clerk III in October 2020, she worked in the Planning & Zoning Department. She has an associate degree in Accounting, BS in Criminal Justice, and Masters in Public Administration. She loves working in her flower beds and garden. She also enjoys sitting around a campfire and camping with friends. She lives in Oregon with her 2 dogs: Mini Schnauzer Gizmo, 2 years old and Shih Tzu Hunter, 16 months old.

Jane

Jane De Broux has been coordinating the Dane County Caregiver Program for six years (through a contracted position) and became the Caregiver Specialist for AAA in January 2021. She has a degree in Professional Communications and Business from Alverno College and a Certificate in Gerontology from the University of Washington-Seattle. She has two sons, an 11-year-old grandchild, and lives in Madison with her wife and two elderly Swedish Vallhunds. She is a master gardener who loves working on her yard.

Kenton

Kenton Zink has been an Elder Benefits Specialist for AAA since 2020. He lives in Fitchburg with his wife and two children. He has degrees in Business and Spanish from the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire. Before joining AAA, he worked in healthcare, health insurance, and as an advocate for those needing healthcare coverage. When not working, he enjoys spending time outdoors.

Leilani

Leilani Amundson has been an Elder Benefit Specialist with AAA since 2016. She received her Juris Doctor law degree from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 2001 and since then has worked in various governmental agencies including the WI Department of Corrections, WI Department of Health Services in the Disability Determination Bureau through SSA, and now with Dane County! She lives in McFarland with her husband, two sons, and dog. In her free time, she loves traveling, gardening, and watching her children play sports.

Shannon

Shannon Gabriel joined the AAA in February 2021 as the Senior Nutrition Program Registered Dietitian and Healthy Aging Coordinator. She oversees 28 senior dining sites and 11 caterers to ensure they're serving nutritious meals that meet state guidelines. In 2022, Shannon became a Board Certified Gerontological Nutrition Specialist to support her role in providing nutrition counseling to adults age 60+ via Zoom, phone, or home visits. She also works with Wisconsin Institute of Healthy Aging to facilitate healthy aging workshops throughout Dane County. She lives in Waunakee with her husband and 2 children.

Claire

Claire Purkis joined AAA in November 2022 as Aging Program Specialist. Before coming to Dane County she worked as a social worker in Chicago and suburbs for over 20 years specializing in mental health, aging, housing and homelessness. She has a BA in Drama from Aberystwyth University in Wales, an MA in Social Work from Cardiff University in Wales, and is a LCSW in the state of Illinois. Claire was born and raised in Yorkshire, England and has lived in the United States for 27 years. She lives in Sun Prairie with her wife, two children and a rescue dog called Esther. In her spare time she is a foster mom/volunteer for Underdog Pet Rescue of Wisconsin and loves to go kayaking.

Tiffany

Tiffany Scully has been an Elder Benefit Specialist with AAA since March 2013. She has a Master's degree in Social Work from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. Prior to joining AAA, Tiffany worked as a social worker in hospital, home health, and community-based service settings with older adults and adults with disabilities. She enjoys spending time with her husband, daughters, and their Boston Terrier/French Bulldog named Badger.